

Industry Recognition for Supply Chain Prowess

EPG Recognized as a Challenger in 2025 Gartner® Magic Quadrant™ for WMS

EPG (Ehrhardt Partner Group), a global leader in unified supply chain execution and warehouse management technology, announced today it has been named a Challenger in the Gartner® Magic Quadrant™ for Warehouse Management Systems (WMS). This is the fourth consecutive recognition for EPG as a Challenger, acknowledged for its Ability to Execute and Completeness of Vision.

“EPG’s recognition as a Challenger in the 2025 Gartner® Magic Quadrant™ for WMS is a recognition we believe reflects our ongoing dedication to product innovation and the continued expansion of our global customer base,” states Marco Ehrhardt, Chairman of EPG. “We are continuously innovating our supply chain execution suite, EPG ONE™. As the market evolves, EPG’s solutions evolve in tandem, matching the needs of our customers for optimized logistics performance.”

EPG’s supply chain execution suite, EPG ONE, offers global brands an end-to-end solution spanning advanced warehouse management, warehouse control, voice solutions, intelligent route planning and execution, extended workforce management, contract and billing management, and a robust supply chain control tower. Combined with a deep expertise in managing highly complex and automated Level 5 warehouse environments, EPG empowers global organizations to further digitize and automate to meet today’s extensive supply chain pressures.

As consumer expectations and logistics complexity continue to rise, effective supply chain technology has never been more critical. EPG’s WMS solution empowers businesses to meet and exceed their goals at every level of complexity and scale. From food and beverage distribution, retail, and manufacturing, to automotive, chemical, healthcare and pharmaceutical environments, EPG delivers robust technology to maximize every aspect of warehouse performance, exceed end consumer demands, and transform the entire supply chain journey.
